On 6 February 1958 the lives of 8 brilliant young footballers were lost in the Munich air disaster. Affectionately known as the Busby Babes after manager Matt Busby, the football world was left reeling from the loss of some of its most talented players.

To mark the anniversary of this sporting tragedy Go Entertain is releasing The Busby Era, a 60 min documentary featuring extensive coverage of the 1948, 57, 58 and 63 cup finals and the 1968 European cup.

The DVD will also include rare footage of legends Bill Foulkes, Tommy Taylor, Duncan Edwards and the holy trinity of Charlton, Best and Law.

From the ashes of World War 2, through the tragedy of Munich to eventual European Cup glory this is the full story of Matt Busby's glorious reign at Manchester United.
